

WALTER CAMP SELECTS THREE AMERICAN TEAMS

With Players From Sixteen Colleges and Universities, Harvard Leads With Five Players.

CHANGE IN CRIMSON DATES

Several Games Will Be Dropped and Others Substituted—Tigers to Have
One-Man Coaching System—Navy
Elects Captain.

NEW YORK, December 12.—The all-American football team selections of Walter Camp, announced here to-night, include three full elevens, with players from sixteen colleges and universities. Harvard leads with five players, all on the first team; the Army is second with four, and Dartmouth, Yale and Washington and Jefferson each place three.

The selections follow:
First team—End, Hardwick, Harvard; tackle, Ballin, Princeton; guard, Pennock, Harvard; center, McEwan, West Point; quarterback, Harvard; end, O'Hearn, Cornell; quarter, Ghee, Dartmouth; half back, Maulbetsch, Michigan; half back, Bradlee, Harvard; full back, Mahan, Harvard.

Second team—Quarterback, West Point; Nash, Rutgers; Jordan, Texas; DeJardin, Chicago; Shank, Princeton; Patterson, Washington and Jefferson; Brann, Yale; Barrett, Cornell; Spiegel, Washington and Jefferson; Cahill, Lehigh; Legore, Yale.
Third team—Solon, Minnesota; Halligan, Nebraska; Spears, Dartmouth; Crutcher, Washington and Jefferson; Meacham, West Point; Ward, West Point; Overesch, Annapolis; Wilson, Yale; Pogue, Illinois; Talman, Rutgers; Whitney, Dartmouth.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., December 12.—There will be radical changes in Harvard's 1915 football schedule, according to a statement from an authentic source to-night. Five teams which the Crimson faced this fall have been dropped. There are: Michigan, Washington and Jefferson, Springfield Young Men's Christian Association College, Tufts and Bates.

Colby probably will open the season at the stadium, Trinity, a newcomer will have the second game, and Pennsylvania State will come third. Games with Princeton, Brown and Yale again will close the Crimson season, in that order.

For the three midseason dates, Virginia, West Point, Carleton, Cornell and Williams are under consideration.

ANN ARBOR, MICH., December 12.—Reports that the Michigan football eleven will play Princeton instead of Harvard next autumn have been current in university circles here for several days. It was admitted recently that Harvard would not give the Wolverines a return game at Ann Arbor next fall.

It has been reported that Princeton is willing to sign a two-year football contract with Michigan, one game to be played here and the other at Princeton.

PRINCETON, December 12.—The Princeton athletic board announced to-day that it had taken definite action toward establishment of a one-man coaching system for football. A committee was appointed to recommend a candidate for coach.

LYNCHBURG, VA., December 12.—William Younger, who has been elected captain of the Fishburne Military Institute football eleven for next season, is a Lynchburg boy and a product of the local high school.

Younger is not only a capable football player, but a star on the diamond and in the basketball cage.

ANNAPOLIS, December 12.—Arthur C. Miles, of Colorado, quarter back of the navy football team during the past season, was elected captain this evening at a meeting of the players.

After the election the football men observed an annual custom by going on a con hunt, which will last all night.

BOWLING
RICHMOND TENPIN LEAGUE.

Schedule for the Week.
To-morrow night—Palace vs. Broom Baking Company, on Newport runs.
Tuesday night—Nolde's Tiptops vs. Newport, on Palace runs.
Wednesday night—Superiors vs. Jewelers, on Newport runs.
Friday night—Times-Dispatch vs. Davis Plumbing Company, on Palace runs.

Standing of the Teams.
Won. Lost. P. C.
Times-Dispatch 16 8 .667
Jewelers 15 9 .625
Superiors 16 9 .625
Broom Baking Company 13 11 .542
Palace 13 14 .481
Davis Plumbing Co. 9 12 .429
Nolde's Tiptops 6 19 .231

It has been decided by the team captains having postponed games that these postponed contests be played off in the two week's lay-off during the holidays, and the Davis Plumbing Company-Times-Dispatch will likely feature three games December 28 on the Newport runs. McFarland will put his Superiors against the Broom's stars also during the week following Christmas.

The first week's games of the second half of the bowling season of the Richmond League caused several surprises Wednesday night on the Newport runs, the Times-Dispatch boys defeated the Jewelers by the tallied Newport. Tuesday, the Jewelers gave the L. Broom Baking Company a surprise by taking three games with a large margin to spare. The men doing the best work for their teams during the week were: Bell, Bailey, Williams, McFarland, Andy and Phipps.

Notes of Players and Teams.
The Jinx is still on the heels of the Palace five. They lost another game last week by one pin.
Wade and Bailey gave McFarland and Rowsey the worst beating they ever had Thursday night on the Palace runs. Bailey was the star, rolling an average of 217 in five games.

The Noldes Tiptops have released Harn and signed one of the old veterans, David Kennedy. Kennedy was one of the stars in the old Virginia Tenpin League during three game totals.

Frank Overmann carried off the honors for the most consistent player in the first half of the Richmond bowling season in three game totals.

The Newport team has a find in Hoen and T. Gordon.
The Noldes Tiptops, under the leadership of Whit Whitman, is making a great run the wrong way.

The Superiors have released Jennings and signed Elliott, who is said to be a good one.

The Newport Christmas tournament continues to attract the bowlers. Each day changes are made in the several divisions. The prize list is one of the largest ever offered in this city.

The Noldes Tiptop pinners are considered to be the strongest (1) team in the league by Whitman, and to show their class they now occupy seventh place in the standing.

The following is the standing of the leaders:
First Division.
Harper and Arca, 1,841.
Fourth Division.
Courier and Fiers, 1,832.

Brown, of the Noldes Tiptops, is out of the game on account of an injured hand.

Whit Whitman, old "Father Time," is returning to form, and is now near the top in the individual standing.

BOWLING LIMERICKS
BY Mc. F.

We hear a lot of talk about the bowlers. Who would like to be classed as high rollers. And if it's not a crime To put a few in rhyme, We'll say some things about these "tenpin doers."

Now, nearly every one has heard of "Whit." The one who really thinks he is "it." Of the ball, by "Father Time." But when it comes to boosting he's a "hit."

There's another bowler, known as "Happy Jake." Who is sticking to the game for old-times sake. Should he chance to miss a spare. You will see him pull his hair. And say some things that really "take the cake."

Now we mention still another one in Spilling. Who always may be counted for "good filling." He, like all, is glad to win. But to lose, it is a sin. To be with the "also rans" he is not willing.

And we must not forget to speak of Bailey. As we see him on the alley almost daily. If you're looking for a game. All you need is call his name. And you'll find that he is with you, always gaily.

Yes, we know that you have often heard of Who, as a tenpin bowler is no jade. But somehow here of late. He just cannot strike his gait. And some say his "stars" begun to fade.

There's the speed king of the "T.D.'s," Temple Roy. Who handles that big ball just like a toy. When he has to make a spare. You can bet that he is there. And just to sit and watch him is a joy.

Now there's the Davis Plumber, "Midget" Miller. As a pinner, he is certainly a spiller. It's either ten or duck. He will never say "hard luck." Oh, no, but what he does say is a killer.

And surely we must mention "Colonel" Burch. We would not think to leave him in the lurch. Though he says he cannot bowl. You will find him at his usual perch. Which for him is the "official rooters' perch."

But when we speak of "speed boys" there is Denny. Who cannot roll a ball, and roll it easy. When it crashes in the pit. All the time boys want to quit. One would really think the alleys must be greasy.

Now there is still another we call "Andy." Who as a tenpin comes in very handy. He has something on the ball. That just makes those old pins fall. And when it comes to speeding, he's the "candy."

We would also give a line to Mr. Blair. When it comes to tenpin bowling, he's a fair. If he's after a spare or strike. Or miss anything you like. "Believe me," when I tell you he is there.

Now perchance some line may not be true. But hope that what is said may not run true. So please forgive this time. For you know each line must rhyme. So we pass it on to you, for we are through.

SMITH WILL AGAIN COACH WAKE FOREST

Spring Practice Will Be a Feature of Next Season's Campaign—Many Squads Apply for Games.

TO MEET V. M. I. AT LEXINGTON

Efforts Being Made to Arrange Date
With V. P. I.—Carolina Contest
Staged at Raleigh During Fair
Week—Davidson on Thanksgiving.

WAKE FOREST, December 12.—Dr. Wilbur C. Smith will coach the Wake Forest football squad next year. Dr. Smith has proven his ability as a coach this year, for with a team composed almost entirely of green material he succeeded in molding them into one of the best football teams that has represented Wake Forest in years. At the opening of the season he impressed upon the men the importance of thorough training, and so well did he carry out his policy that time was only called out twice the entire season.

The outlook for the beginning was far from bright, and every one realized that it was almost more than a man's task to develop a real football team out of the material on hand, but Dr. Smith proved that he was the required man, as the season's record shows.

Not a single man on this year's varsity will be lost. Hillings and Abernathy graduate next spring, but both will return to take a postgraduate course. Hillings did not make his letter his first year, and is eligible to play another year. Abernathy has seen only three years of service.

A spring football practice will be instituted next year, and no efforts are going to be spared to turn out the best football team that Wake Forest has ever had.

Owing to the excellent record made by the team this season a number of teams have written asking for games next fall, and Wake Forest's schedule will be arranged differently from the one the past season.

Wake Forest will play Virginia Military Institute at Lexington November 6, and efforts are being made to arrange a game with Virginia Polytechnic Institute, to be played in Raleigh. Carolina will be played in Durham during fair week, and the annual game with Davidson will be played in Charlotte on Thanksgiving Day.

S. I. A. A. MEMBERSHIP NOW DIVIDED INTO TWO CLASSES

LEXINGTON, KY., December 12.—Modification of the rule of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association providing that members with an enrollment of more than 400 students shall not play freshmen on their day in a constitutional amendment adopted at the association's annual meeting.

The amendment divides the membership into two classes, irrespective of enrollment. Class A is to operate under the one-year exemption requirement, while class B will be allowed to play freshmen. Members have the privilege of deciding which class they will be enrolled in and will play only member opponents in the same class. It is planned that there will be two football championships each year.

More than twenty Southern Universities and colleges are members of the association. The freshmen rule has applied only to football, the use of first year men on varsity teams in other sports being permitted without restriction.

CLUSTER SPRINGS ELEVEN GIVEN BANQUET BY COACH

CLUSTER SPRINGS, VA., December 12.—Coach Irwin P. Graham tendered the members of the Cluster Springs Academy football team a banquet in the academy dining hall Wednesday night. Covers were laid for twenty, and the gridiron heroes made merry over the good things provided by their host. When all had feasted, Coach Graham in a few words of commendation awarded the coveted "C" to the following members of the squad: Redd (captain), Robinson, Lacy, Hopkins, Field, Hubbard, Newton, E. Copenhaver, K. Copenhaver, Harrell, Landrum and Majette. George B. Robinson, of West Virginia, was then elected captain for 1915. Robinson has been a valuable member of the team for the past two years, and during the season just closed he starred in every game and proved his worth as a player. As most of the present team will return to school next year, the outlook for the season is unusually bright.
